

Rosa Parks

11/1/05

by Colin Spady

Rosa Parks was a civil rights leader.

She was tired so she sat in the front of the bus.

The bus driver told her to go to the back of the bus but she stayed in front anyway. Then she went to jail. Then other African Americans followed her. This helped us to sit whenever we want to sit on the bus and helped us become free.

Rosa Parks died on October 2nd 2005. I went to see where Rosa Parks was buried and to say thank you for being brave. The building was called the US Capitol. It is the best building I have ever seen. I saw the casket with pretty flowers.

I saw pictures about her.

I feel great about Rosa Parks because her kindness and bravery set us free.

Ray Parks

